LAST WEEK AT HEADWATERS

AWANA AWARDS -Erin Wood (Director of Children's Ministry)

What a great night to celebrate all the achievements in our Awana year. We had over 100 kids finish their book this year across all clubs. We had thousands of verses memorized. Over 200 registered clubbers were loved on and disciplined by over 70 volunteers. It has been a fantastic year for Awana!

Thank you to all of our volunteers. We were able to honor two invaluable volunteers. Jillian Christensen is our Awana Commander, and Shirley Glover is our Awana Secretary. These women gave up many hours every week to help our club run smoothly. Please thank them as you see them in the hallways!

We also had THREE recipients this year for the Timothy Award. This award goes to an individual who has completed ALL books of EACH level in Awana. In order to receive this award students stayed in Awana for an extra year in 6th grade to finish their final book. Pictured for this year are Ava Zeigler, Kinsley Moore, and Elin Zeigler. Congratulations on all your hard work!

LIFEWAY WOMEN'S CONFERENCE -Christine Overholt (Director of Women's Ministry)

Headwaters women gathered together last Saturday to be encouraged by six prominent Bible teachers as they discussed, "Pursuing Christ Together in Truth." We looked at Ephesians and pondered removal and renewal. We were encouraged to remember who we are in Christ and examined our thoughts to see if they were clothing us in truth. It was good to connect with one another and experience the care expressed throughout the room through conversation and prayer. We are better together!
